

The magic of FloraGLO!

FloraGLO® is the world's leading patented, purified lutein shown to support eye health*

FloraGLO lutein is:

Sourced from marigold flowers and is purified from marigold flower oleoresin

Backed by over 20 years of research<sup>1</sup>

Used in more clinical trials than any other lutein

Unsurpassed reputation for trust and performance in the market<sup>2</sup>

So, what does it do?

It acts as an antioxidant to protect the eye from free radicals and supports macular pigment density which may help ease eye strain.

Of the more than 600 carotenoids found in nature, lutein is one of only two carotenoids specifically located in the macula of the eye.

Lutein is a carotenoid found in many fresh fruits and vegetables.
